Arriving

On Foot / By Bicycle: A bicycle rack is located on the Binns Park side of the tower, and a small indoor storage area is located inside the Chestnut Street entrance, to the left of security.

By Car: Metered on-street parking is available on Prince, Chestnut, and Queen Sts. Pay at the nearest kiosk. Nearby garages include the Prince Street Garage (Prince and Orange Sts.), RRTA Queen Street Station Garage (Queen and Chestnut Sts.), and Duke Street Garage (Duke and Chestnut Sts.). City parking information is available from the Lancaster Parking Authority here and Red Rose Transit Authority here. Note: Although Level 3 of the Prince Street Garage opens into Binns Park, you must walk around the tower and enter the building from Chestnut Street.

Entering the Building

Public Entrance: The public must use the Chestnut Street entrance to the building. Binns Park entrances are only for employees.

Security: Go through security, where you'll be asked to put your bags on the belt, and everything in your pockets (including wallets) into bowls. These items will be scanned, and you'll walk through a metal detector and / or be wanded.

Finding Your Way Inside

Ask security personnel for directions. The building has two sections: a 7-story tower facing Chestnut Street and a 3-story annex facing Binns Park. The public entrance to the building is located in the tower, but the Planning Department office and all conference rooms (102, 104, A and B) are located in the annex.

Planning Department Office / Conference Rooms A and B | Annex – 3rd Floor, Suite 320

Conference Room 102 | Annex – 1st Floor

Conference Room 104 | Annex – 1st Floor

Go past the elevators, turn right into the waiting area, then turn left. Walk down the long hall and straight through the door with the glass surround. Continue past the elevators to the Binns Park lobby. Straight ahead, look for a wooden door leading to Veterans Affairs and the restrooms. Go through the door, continue to the end of the short hall, and turn right.
